

SUPP meeting 4/18/23

Attendance: Will Matteson, Amy Bedard, Mikaela Sheffler, Karen-Ann Hagar-Smith, Niki Curtis, Sally Farrell, Chelsea Stephens, Mya Krawic, Rand Maker, Teresa Kelly-Gillis, Peter Bruun

Director's Report: Kelsey will be stepping down as director in May, parent company is looking for replacement. Kelsey will be working at Lincoln Health staying in our community, and will be staying on in our coalition as a parent – has enjoyed connecting with this group and hoping to stay connected in the future

716 Candles Event - 3 planning meeting Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday at noon– don't have to attend all 3 meetings but it is for planning and can come to any one of the meetings to weigh in on decisions – also need names of people for the event; artists, musicians, writers, etc.

Drug Take back day – April 22nd 10a- 2pm

Locations: Boothbay Harbor – Town Office
Whitefield – Whitefield Lions Club
Damariscotta – Lincoln Health Miles Campus
Wiscasset – Wiscasset Police Department
Waldoboro – Waldoboro Town Office

Presentation: Flavors Hook Kids – Chelsea Stephens and Teresa Kelly-Gillis – slide show presentation attached

“Join us April 25th for the HHS public hearing on LD 1215 and share your support”

Reach out to teresagillis@gmail.com or chelseastephens@gmail.com for more information

Presentation: Journey Magazine – Niki Curtis

- Goal is to amplify, hope, resources, and reduce stigma
- Free subscription link for anyone to subscribe to the magazine. Volunteers distribute magazine, and distribute wherever someone can sit down and read a magazine
- Created a stigma-free free job board.
- How can you help? Free subscription link – share it with people, share job board link with people looking for work or hiring, consider purchasing bulk distribution $750 per yr, share story ideas – editor@journey.magazine.com, advertising.

Law Enforcement Report, Rand Maker:

-Sticker Shock May 10, RBS Training in Boothbay Brewery – open to community.

Other: April 29th 9-12 Healthy Kids Day at CLC YMCA

Next Meeting: May 16th 2pm at Healthy Lincoln County and Zoom

